

Calls for proposals planned to be launched under the EFSA 2012 Annual Work Programme for Grants¹

Titles² (indicative maximum amount of EFSA grant in thousand EUR):

1. Critical review of methodology and applications for risk ranking and benefit ranking for prioritisation of food and feed related issues on the basis of the size of anticipated health impact (€100K)
2. Data collection and methodology support in GMO risk Assessment of GM animals (€135K)
3. Mineral hydrocarbons toxins - data needs identified in order to refine risk assessment (€209K)
4. Assistance to Member States to map database structures to EFSA requirements and to submit data using the xml protocol (€180K)
5. Use of guidance peer reviewed open literature (€100K)

¹ Please note that the information (titles, budget and timing) provided here is only indicative, with the purpose to inform potential applicants; EFSA is not bound to launching these calls as specified.

² The list includes only the calls still to be launched.