

Programme

Workshop "The role of wild birds in the introduction of Avian Influenza into the EU" | Parma, 1-2 March 2016

DAY 1 – 1st March 2016

|                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                            |                                                                                  |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 08.30-09.00                                                                                                                           | Registration                                                                               |                                                                                  |
| INTRODUCTION – seat 00/M09Chair: Arjan Stegeman, Utrecht University (NL)                                                   |                                                                                            |                                                                                  |
| 09.00-09.45                                                                                                                           | WelcomeBackground of the mandateObjectives of the event                            | Arjan Stegeman, Utrecht University (NL) and Francesca Baldinelli (EFSA)   |
| 09.45-10.45                                                                                                                           | Expert knowledge elicitation (EKE): introduction and training (part 1)                     | Andy Hart, FERA (UK)                                                      |
| 10.45-11.00                                                                                                                           | Coffee/Tea break                                                                           |                                                                                  |
| 11.00-12.00                                                                                                                           | Expert knowledge elicitation (EKE): introduction and training (part 2)                     | Andy Hart, FERA (UK)                                                      |
| EKE: tour de table, introduction and discussion of the parameters to be elicited followed by parameter estimation by the participants |                                                                                            |                                                                                  |
| breakout sessions                                                                                                                     | Ornithology group - seat 00/M07Chair: Federica Barrucci and Laura Martino, EFSA | Virology/epidemiology group – seat 00/M09Chairs: Andy Hart, FERA (UK) |
| 12.00-13.00                                                                                                                           | Migratory water birds entering EU (part 1)                                                 | HPAI prevalence in migratory water birds                                         |
| 13.00-14.00                                                                                                                           | Lunch break                                                                                |                                                                                  |
| 14.00-16.00                                                                                                                           | Migratory water birds entering EU (part 2)                                                 | Infection of a poultry holding                                                   |
| 16.00-16.30                                                                                                                           | Coffee/Tea break                                                                           |                                                                                  |
| 16.30-18.00                                                                                                                           | Water birds reaching a poultry holding                                                     | Removal water bodies around a holdingOutdoor to indoor housing               |
| 18.00                                                                                                                                 | Cocktail                                                                                   |                                                                                  |

DAY 2 – 2nd March 2016

| EKE: presentation of the parameters to be elicited followed by parameter estimation by the participants |                                                                                            |                                                                                  |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| breakout sessions                                                                                       | Ornithology group - seat 00/M07Chair: Federica Barrucci and Laura Martino, EFSA | Virology/epidemiology group – seat 00/M09Chairs: Andy Hart, FERA (UK) |
| 08.30-11.30                                                                                             | Non-water birds reaching a poultry holding                                                 | BiosecurityShedding period                                                   |
| 11.30-11.45                                                                                             | Coffee/Tea break                                                                           |                                                                                  |
| CONCLUSIONS – seat 00/M09Chair: Arjan Stegeman, Utrecht University (NL)                      |                                                                                            |                                                                                  |
| 11.45-12.15                                                                                             | Presentation results from the ornithology group                                            | Martin Wikelski, Max-Planck Society (DE)                                  |
| 12.15-12.45                                                                                             | Presentation results from the virology/epidemiology group                                  | Timm Harder, FLI (DE) and Andrew Breed, APHA (UK)                  |
| 12.45-13.00                                                                                             | Concluding remarksNext steps                                                           | Anette Bøtner, DTU (DK) and Frank Verdonck, EFSA                   |
| 13.00-14.00                                                                                             | Lunch break                                                                                |                                                                                  |