

EFSA supported Joint Projects under EU RAA

Stef Bronzwaer, Head of Advisory Forum and Scientific Cooperation Unit
Advisory Forum meeting

5-6 December 2017

OVERVIEW IN NUMBERS

- Delphi study (Dec 2015) identified 28 MS priorities
- Good overlap MS / EFSA 2020 priorities (17/28)
- 36 Joint Projects over 2015 - 2017
(ED visit, Thematic / Partnering grants)
- 75 partners from 24 countries involved
- Joint Projects related to 16/28 MS priorities
- 10 projects from EU RAA Catalogue
- Total EFSA support around 7M Euro
(range 26 k – 1,2 M Euro)

Overview of EFSA supported joint projects under the EU Risk Assessment Agenda (2015-2017) including thematic grants, partnering grants and ED visits projects

I. Generic priorities

A) MS priorities identified in Delphi Study	B) Joint Projects (incl. ED visits projects, thematic & partnering grants)	C) Coordinator (MS)	D) Partners in consortia	E) Link with EFSA priorities identified in EFSA Strategy 2020 (p. 23 and 26-27)
1. Methods and systems for identifying emerging food risks (e.g. new food-borne diseases)	Crisis preparedness training (2016)	BIOR (LV)	EE, LT, PL	Processes and a toolbox for emerging risks identification and crisis preparedness will be further developed, with particular emphasis in the areas of plant health and vector-borne (wild) animal diseases, and traceback, trace-forward methodologies and tools.
	Thematic grant DEMETER – DEtermination of METrics of Emerging Risk (2016)	Stichting Wageningen Research (NL)	– Wageningen University (NL) – University of Newcastle upon Tyne (UK) – BfR (DE) – National Food Chain Safety Office (HU)
	FPA/AMU/2016 - Food Chain Lab: Development of RA tools for the safety of global food and feed supply chains (2017-2020) https://www.efsa.europa.eu/en/press/news/161208	BfR (DE)
	Physico-chemical characterization and exposure analysis of the fraction of engineered nanomaterials in food additives in the context of risk assessment (2018-2020)	CODA-CERVA (BE)
	Plant health: Development of detection sampling surveillance and risk reducing options for Phyllosticta citricarpa in Europe (2018)	to be awarded end of 2017
	Partnering grant - Plant Health: Novel and improved tools for monitoring and tackling genetic selection in potato cyst nematode, Globodera Pallida , populations (PALADAPT)	INRA (FR)	– Wageningen University (NL) – JKI (DE)
	Partnering grant - Generic approaches for RA of infectious animal disease introduction (G-RAID)	Stichting Wageningen Research (NL)	– SVA (SE) – DTU-VET (DK) – IRTA (ES) – EVIRA (FI) – APHA (UK)
	Partnering grant - Risk assessment for influenza D in Europe	INRA (FR)	– Utrecht University (NL) – SVA (SE) – Luxembourg Institute of Health (LU) – University of Liege (BE) – IZSLER (IT)
2. Development of standard risk-benefit assessment methods (of foods)	Risk-benefit modelling workshop (2017)	DTU (DK)		Set-up by end 2016 of an integrated framework containing EFSA's methodologies and guidances for evidence-based risk assessment, covering existing horizontal and sectorial methodologies and guidances; implementation from 2017 of a process for the continuous maintenance and updating of prioritised methodologies and guidances in cooperation with EU and international bodies (e.g. through the review of existing and/or development of new methodologies).
	Evidence based risk ranking of chemical and microbiological hazards in food (2017-2018)	NFA (SE)	– EVIRA (FI)
	Partnering grant - RISKBENEFIT4EU – partnering to strengthen the risk benefit assessment within eu using a holistic approach	INSA (PT)	– INRA (FR) – DTU (DK) – University of Porto (PT) – ASAE (PT)
	Partnering grant - Dose-response relationships in health risk assessment of nutritional and toxicological factors in foods: development and application of novel biostatistical methods	University of Modena and Reggio Emilia (IT)	– Karolinska Institutet (SE) – National and Kapodistrian University of Athens (GR) – University of Porto (PT)
