ACTIONS FOR THE MEETING:

1. On the 13th of November there will be a discussion group session on the outstanding questions with regards to the ongoing process of updating the EFSA Guidance for the EU Menu survey based on the results of the EU Menu pilot projects. For the group discussions, please select a 1st and 2nd priority topic for you from the list below, based on which you will be appointed to a relevant discussion group during the meeting:

1. Sampling issues in dietary surveys
2. Harmonising food lists and describing foods (use of FoodEX2 facets)
3. Minimum requirements for a harmonised data collection tool
4. Portion size estimation
5. Food propensity questionnaire (FPQ)
6. Quality control of the data collection
7. How to increase response rates?

Please send your selection of topics to Liis.KAMBEK@efsa.europa.eu (cc to Liisa.VALSTA@efsa.europa.eu) by the morning of Monday, the 4th of November.

In case you will not inform us about the selection of priority topics, EFSA/DCM will place you in one of the discussion groups.

2. On the 14th of November there will be a round-table where all participants will have to shortly present the future plans of national dietary surveys in their country. Please be prepared to summarise the plans and views of your country.

NB. In case you would not be the person representing the institution responsible for the national dietary surveys in your country, please consult the appropriate organizations in your country, as needed, before the meeting.
