

Sebastian Graf von Keyserlingk, Head of Directorate “Safety of the Food Chain”, Federal Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Regional Identity

Studied law in Regensburg and Berlin. Since 2002, he has worked in various areas of agricultural policies in the Federal Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Regional Identity and in the Federal Chancellery, most recently as head of the directorate for International Cooperation. Professional stays abroad included the Permanent Representation of the Federal Republic to the International Organizations in Geneva and the French Ministry of Agriculture.