

Applications helpdesk – Maximum residue levels application procedure

Applications for setting or changing Maximum residue levels (MRLs) can be submitted at any time through a national contact point. A Member State is appointed as an “evaluator” (EMS) to carry out an initial risk assessment and to prepare an Evaluation Report (ER) which EFSA reviews.

Regulation EC 396/2005

