

EFSA Public Consultation

Draft Scientific Opinion on recent developments in the risk assessment of chemicals in food and their potential impact on the safety assessment of substances used in food contact materials

Note on the processing of personal data in the context of this Public Consultation

Regulation (EC) n° 45/2001 regarding the processing of personal data is applicable to the present Public Consultation. In accordance with Article 11 and 12 of the Regulation, the following information is provided:

- The objective of this public consultation is to receive the views of stakeholders or people concerned by the topic of the public consultation and potentially to publish them on the EFSA website, under the responsibility of the Head of EFSA's FIP Unit, acting as the Controller ;
- The personal data collected and further processed are data necessary for the participation in the public consultation, such as the title, full name, organization or affiliation, department/service, contact details, including address, phone number and email, as well as the contribution on the subject matter of this Public Consultation ;
- The Public Consultation is carried out by means of an electronic form available on the EFSA website. Please note that the on-line submission of your contribution also implies the processing of your IP address exclusively for technical purposes;
- The access to information collected in the context of this Public Consultation and the personal data therein is restricted to a limited number of EFSA staff under the supervision of the Controller, as well as staff of the IT Unit of EFSA providing technical support, without prejudice to a possible transfer to the bodies in charge of a monitoring or inspection task in accordance with European Union legislation.
- Your contribution in the EU language of drafting, is recorded in a secure and protected database hosted on the EFSA servers, operated in compliance with EFSA's Information Security Policy;
- Your personal data will remain in the database until the analysis of the results has been completed and will be rendered anonymous afterwards, at the latest one year after the end of the Public Consultation. The Controller guarantees that the contributions to the Public Consultation will be used in an aggregated manner and that the report on the results shall not allow the identification of individuals who have contributed;
- Respondents have the right of access and the right to rectify the data concerning him or her by contacting the Controller (Food Ingredients & Packaging Unit – FIP Unit) - phone: +39 0521 036 111 or sending an email to fip@efsa.europa.eu They also have at any time the right to have recourse regarding the processing of their personal data in the context of this Public Consultation to the European Data Protection Supervisor (<http://www.edps.europa.eu>).