EFSA Public Consultation - Specific Privacy Statement

Public consultation on the draft protocol for the exposure assessment as part of the safety assessment of sweeteners under the food additives re-evaluation programme

1. Objective

The objective of EFSA's public consultations is to receive the views of stakeholders or people concerned by the specific topic of the consultation and to publish these on the EFSA website, under the responsibility of the Head of Unit in charge who is also the controller with regard to processing of personal data. As the public consultation process implies the collection and limited further processing of certain personal data, Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies is applicable.

2. Identification Data

The personal data collected and further processed are data necessary for the participation in the public consultation, such as Category, First Name, Last Name, Affiliation, Country, E-Mail and the contribution on the topics concerned. The processing of personal data linked to the organisation and management of this public consultation is necessary for the management and functioning of EFSA, as mandated by EFSA's Founding Regulation[1].

3. Technical information

EFSA public consultations are carried out by means of the European Commission's official survey management tool 'EUSurvey'. The reference installation of the tool is hosted at DG DIGIT of the European Commission and contributions are collected in the DG DIGIT datacentre. After the closure of the consultation, an EFSA staff member in charge downloads in a secure manner the data file with the contributions into EFSA's Document Management System with a restricted access setting on a need-to-know basis. For the aspects not covered in this Statement, please refer to EUSurvey Privacy Statement here. (https://ec.europa.eu/eusurvey/home/privacystatement).

4. Publication of contributions

[1] Regulation (EC) n° 178/2002 of 28 January 2002, i.e. recitals 55 and 56 and Article 42

Comments submitted will be published and may be re-used by EFSA in a different context. It should be noted that the name of individuals contributing in a personal capacity will not be published. Comments submitted on behalf of an organisation will be made publicly available and attributed to the organisation.

5. Copyrights of contributions

Persons or entities participating in the EFSA Public Consultation are responsible for ensuring that they hold all the rights necessary for their submissions and consequent publication by EFSA. Comments should inter alia be copyright cleared, taking into account EFSA's transparency policy and practise to publish all submissions. In case the submission reproduces third party content in the form of charts, graphs or images, the required prior permissions of the right holder should have been obtained.

6. Contact Information and complaints
