

Programme

Workshop "Data requirements for the re-evaluation of food additives used in foods for infants below 16 weeks of age"

Parma, 30 November 2018

30 November 2018

08.30-09.30	Registration
SESSION 1 – Overview of data requirements Chair: Maged Younes, Chair of the Food Additives and Flavourings Panel, EFSA
09.30-09.40	Welcome and introduction to the event	Prof.Maged Younes, Chair of the FAF Panel
09.40-10.00	Guiding principles on the risk assessment of substances present in foods intended for infants below 16 weeks of age	Prof.Ursula Gundert-Remy, Chair of the FAF Panel Working Groups on Food Additives permitted in foods for infants below 16 weeks of age.
10.00-10.15	Re-evaluation of food additives used in foods for infants below 16 weeks of age: state of play	Anna Christodoulidou FIP Unit
10.15-10.30	Related follow-up activities by the European Commission	Guillermo Cardon, European Commission, DG SANTE
10.30-11.00	Coffee/tea break
11.00-11.15	Food additives used in foods for infants below 16 weeks of age: additional information from animal tests	Dr. Ine Waalkens-Berendsen, FAF Panel member
11.15-11.30	What can we learn from the clinical studies in infants (on thickeners)?	Prof.Dominique Turck, Chair of the NDA Panel
11.30-12.20	Feedback from the Working Group dealing with the re-evaluation of food additives in foods for infants below 16 weeks of age	Members of the WG on food additives in foods for infants below 16 weeks of age

	Thickening agents, Esters of fatty acids, Silicon dioxide, Sodium carbonate Tocopherols (E 306 – 309)	Dr.Birgit Dusemund Dr.Claude Lambre Dr.Alicja Mortensen
12.20-12.30	Questions	All
12.30-14.00	Lunch break
SESSION 2 – Engaging in EFSA’s work Anna Christodoulidou, Senior Scientific Officer of the Food Ingredients and Packaging (FIP) Unit, EFSA
14.00-14.20	A point of view from interested parties	Sasha Lasidu Specialised Nutrition Europe
14.20-15.20	Round table: questions and feedback from the audience	All
15:20-15:30	Concluding remarks and end of meeting	Prof.Maged Younes, Chair of the FAF Panel
15.30-16.00	Farewell coffee/tea	