Updated Decision of the EFSA Management Board Concerning the Establishment and Operation of Scientific Networks

Dirk Detken

Head of the Legal & Assurance Services

Trusted science for safe food

- An internal review of EFSA's scientific networks was carried out as part of the End-to-End-Science Project of the ART Programme.
- The internal review identified several areas where further optimisation could be achieved and the new Decision is designed to produce such enhancements.

New Key Features

- Leaner appointment of network members.
- More specific Terms of Reference detailing measurable outcomes and expected deliverables to allow networks to become more outcome oriented.
- Continuous review of networks to ensure networks remain fit for purpose.
- Physical meetings reduced and sustained online collaborative working encouraged making networks more agile and active.
