AGES AKADEMIE

Relevance of EFSA for Austrian Food Safety

Speakers:	Catherine GESLAIN-LANÉELLE, Ulrich HERZOG, Klemens FUCHS, Bernhard BERGER, Martin WAGNER
Date:	5 June 2009, 10 – 12 a.m.
Venue:	AGES, Spargelfeldstrasse 191, 1220 Wien, Austria, Lecture Hall A/E.51
Participation fee:	none
Registration:	until 29 May 2009 either by internet (http://www.ages.at/ages/ueber-uns/ages-akademie/programm/) or by email: akademie@ages.at or by fax: + 43 (0) 50 555-25209

Programme

09.30 Registration and Coffee

10.00 Welcome
Bernhard URL (AGES, General Manager)

10.10 Future Challenges in Food Safety
Catherine GESLAIN-LANÉELLE (EFSA, Executive Director)

10.35 Relevance of EFSA for Austria
Ulrich HERZOG (Fed. Ministry of Health, Director of Department Consumer-Health, CVO)

10.55 Relevance of EFSA for Austrian Risk Assessment
Klemens FUCHS (AGES, Division Manager Data, Statistics and Risk Assessment)

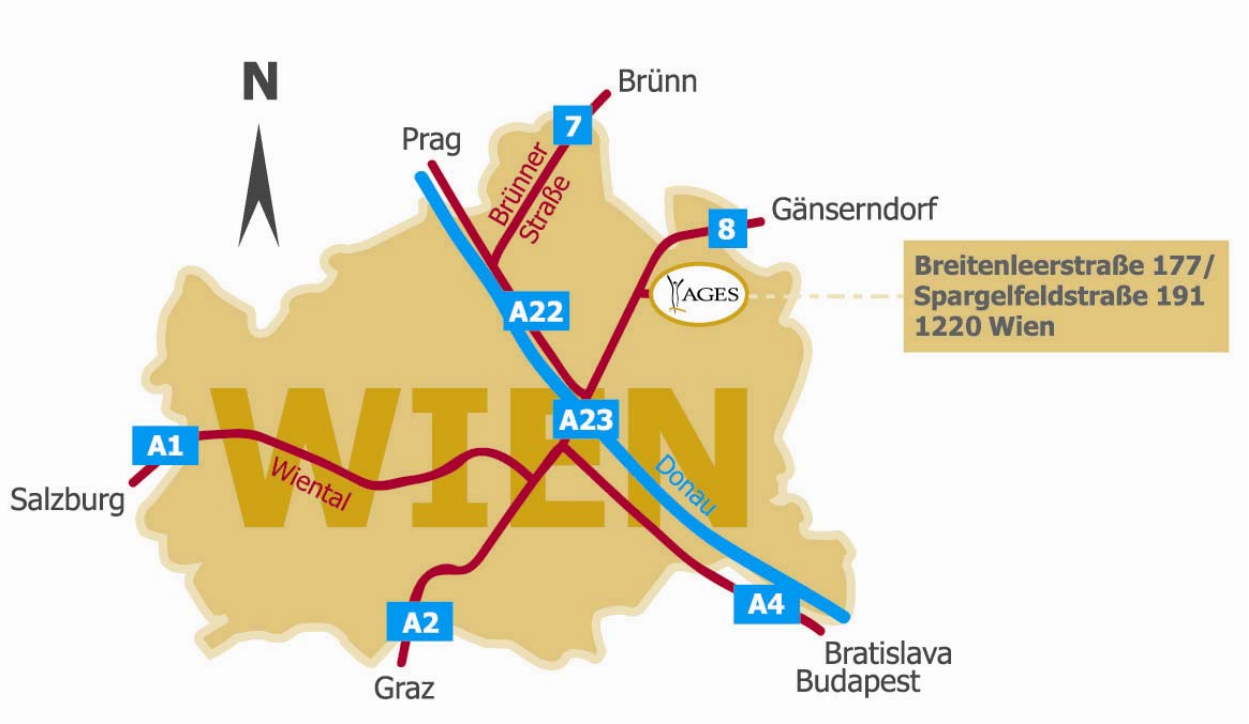

11.15 Networking in Food Safety – Status quo and Future Challenges
Bernhard BERGER (Head of Unit Scientific Cooperation)

11.35 Expectations and Needs in Food Safety Research
Martin WAGNER (Univ. of Veterinary Medicine Vienna)

12.00 Closure
Bernhard URL (AGES, General Manager)

There will be time for discussion after each lecture.

The meeting will be held in English.

HOW TO FIND

by public service:

First take the underground U1, direction Leopoldau, get off at station "Kagraner Platz". Then take the bus 24A, get off at station "Spargelfeldstrasse" (travel time 15 minutes).

by car:

Take Highway A23, direction Gänserndorf - turn right at exit "Breitenlee" (traffic light) - go straight ahead - 100 metres after the next traffic light turn left at AGES-car entry - parking space available.