

Management Board
18 December 2019

Business transformation and technology

Paul Devalier

Head of Unit, Transformation Services

Trusted science for safe food

Achievements & Plans

IT Roadmap 2014-2019

Data is centralised to improve availability and universal access

We will transition from document workflow to business process management

Talent Management systems expand and integrate with core business

Intelligent IT will automate analytics and business processes

Content is managed through multiple online channels & embraces social media & Web 2.0

Usable organisational governance tools give visibility and control over business rules

“Technoscience” Roadmap 2020-2027

A.I. and cognitive analytics applied to risk assessment

New Data streams harvested and exploited via computational analytics

Shared Services within HPAC initiative

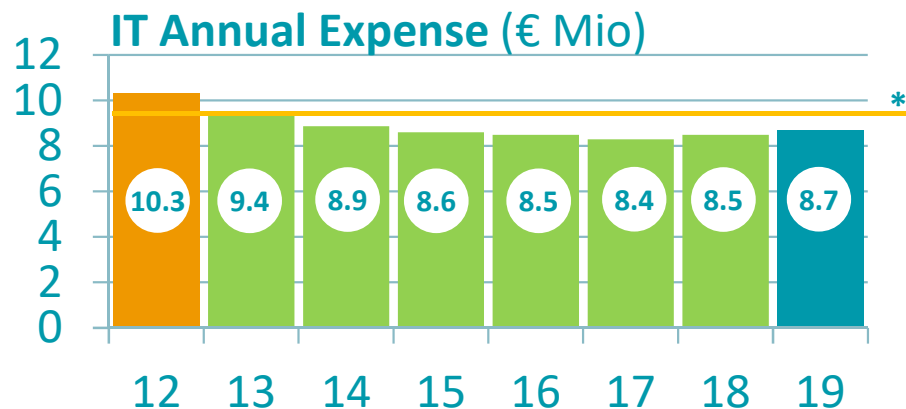

Data quality and interoperability via open data and metadata standards ensured

Enable Real Time Risk Assessment

Data discoverability, usability and re-usability and output traceability ensured

Result of IT Operational Strategy 2020

2014-2019 most strategic targets achieved

* € 8.7 Mio 2019 IT spend is net of IUCLID pilot with ECHA

